Vertical reservation quotas at Trident Academy of Technology are allocated as per state guidelines: Scheduled Castes (SC) at 16.25%, Scheduled Tribes (ST) at 22.5%, Socially and Educationally Backward Classes (SEBC) at 11.25% (subject to revision), and Economically Weaker Sections (EWS) at 10% for non-reserved category candidates.

Horizontal reservations at Trident Academy of Technology provide special category allocations across all vertical categories. These include a 15% reservation for government school students (those completing Class 10 and 12 in government schools), 5% for persons with disabilities as per the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016, and 5% for children of ex-servicemen, martyrs, and war widows. Additionally, 1-2% of seats are reserved for Jammu & Kashmir migrants, and 2-5% for sportspersons who have represented their state or nation, with eligible candidates receiving relaxation in entrance scores or marks based on institutional criteria.

Trident Academy of Technology provides specific relaxations for reserved categories. EWS and SEBC candidates may receive up to 5% relaxation in qualifying marks or entrance scores, while persons with disabilities (PWD) receive accommodations such as scribes, extra exam time, and age or mark relaxation. Children of ex-servicemen or martyrs are eligible for relaxed qualifying marks and age limits. Jammu & Kashmir migrants benefit from flexible document verification and entrance score relaxations.

If reserved seats remain unfilled, they may be reallocated to other eligible candidates based on merit, ensuring efficient seat utilization across categories.
