Trident Academy of Technology collaborates actively with more than 30 various NGOs, including Bhubaneswar Municipal Corporation (BMC), Switch ON Foundation, and Nature Care, to support climate adaptation efforts. Through these partnerships, Trident engages in community-based initiatives such as promoting sustainable agriculture, enhancing urban green spaces, and fostering climate resilience in vulnerable areas. These collaborations allow students and faculty to contribute to local climate adaptation projects, gaining hands-on experience in sustainability while helping communities build resilience against climate impacts. Trident's engagement with these NGOs reinforces its commitment to environmental stewardship and community-driven climate solutions.

One of our student got state level first prize for participating in highest number of plantation drive in our state.

A Plogging Drive at Mahanadi River in Cuttack combined jogging with litter collection to reduce plastic waste and enhance riverfront hygiene. Similarly, during Ocean Coastal Cleanup Day at Puri Beach, students collected waste from the shoreline to protect marine life and promote responsible tourism, reinforcing Trident's commitment to environmental conservation.
