DESCRIPTION

At Trident Academy of Technology, academic and research staff are measured in Full-Time Equivalents (FTE), encompassing roles like professors, assistant professors, associate professors, and senior female academic staff. FTE is calculated by dividing total hours worked by the standard full-time hours. The staff breakdown includes 117 assistant professors (38 female), 39 associate professors (17 female), and 17 professors (4 female), making a grand total of 173 academic staff, with 58 being female.

Trident Academy of Technology has a strong representation of female staff across all departments, showcasing its commitment to diversity and equal opportunity. This focus on gender balance creates a supportive workplace and enriches the academic and research environment by valuing female representation.
