SDG11: SUSTAINABLE CITIES & COMMUNITIES

11.4.5 Does your Institute provide affordable housing for Students?

The Institute's three on-campus hostels accommodate 1,200 students and offer well-maintained, spacious, and furnished rooms. Hostellers have access to a mess with hygienic vegetarian and non-vegetarian meals at affordable rates. Facilities include incoming telephone service, a small library, and a common room with a TV. Wi-Fi covers all hostels, complemented by a computer room with internet access. For health needs, first aid kits and essential medicines are available, along with a consulting room. A college vehicle is on standby for emergencies, and a resident pharmacist ensures medical support. Hostellers can also use the Central Library on campus. The hostel features a recreation hall serving as a common room, offering indoor games, newspapers, magazines, and audio-visual facilities like a TV and sound system. In an eco-friendly initiative, the Institute plans to install a rooftop solar system to provide hot water for various uses.
